Audition Information

Reedley's River City Theatre Company will hold auditions for You're A Good Man Charlie Brown.

When: Saturday, March 6th at 2:00pm

Where: The Reedley Opera House

Director: Mark Norwood

Casting Ages: 8yrs to 35 yrs

Please prepare a song from memory and bring the sheet music with you. A pianist will be provided to accompany you. You may also be asked to read selected scenes from the script. (note: No one may audition with out a prepared song for this production)

The Director will be experimenting with different casting combinations. There may be a mix of young and older performers. Roles may be double cast and an ensemble may be included as well. All of this will be determined by the audition pool.

The Cast:

Sally Brown: Charlie Brown's little sister. A spitfire! Bubbly, energetic and fun. Strong singer/dancer/actor. Ideally this role will be double cast with a young performer 8 to 16yrs of age and a young adult aged 18 to 35yrs of age.

Lucy Van Pelt: Tells it like it is and how she would like it to be. Outspoken and blunt. Linus's older sister. Strong singer/dancer/actor. Double cast with child and adult.

Snoopy: The famous beagle whose fantasies include being a WWI Flying ace. High energy. Strong singer/dancer/comic skills. May double cast.

Schroeder: Aarne Kela has been cast in the adult slot for this role. A young person aged 8yrs to 16yrs may be cast as well. Must play the piano.

Charlie Brown: The loveable everyman with his heart on his sleeve. Always means well and does his best to roll with life's ups and downs. Double cast with child and adult.
Strong singer/actor

Linus Van Pelt: Lucy's younger brother. Loves philosophy, his security blanket, and a good thumb suck. Double cast with child and adult. Strong singer/actor.
